Hazards Here For Shoppers

California's Attorney General, Evelle J. Younger, sends almost as many communications to the press as he does the governor. Come to think of it, he may indeed believe . . . nope, let's not talk about the governor's office, let's stick to the timely advice being distributed currently by the attorney general.

As attorney general, Younger has the responsibility to deal with California's crime. Today, he is concerned with California's shoppers, merchants, auto drivers, and pedestrians who will suffer theft losses during the holidays.

"Pickpockets, shoplifters and thieves find the holidays to their liking," he notes. "But certain precautions can be taken to avoid thefts and other dangers."

He suggests that these precautions be taken:

1. Always place purchases in the trunk of the auto rather than on the seat or floor of the car.

2. Close the car's windows and lock the doors.

3. Hold purchases tightly to avoid them being taken while purchaser is walking down the street or in the store.

4. Women should keep their hands on their purses so that they can't be taken.

5. When using a credit card, make certain the clerk gives it back.

"Individuals need to know how best to guard against criminal assaults and frauds, and to know what public services are available in the way of legal information and other assistance," Younger said. But he didn't advise where this information and assistance would come from.

For his information, and the information of the readers, such help can come from the local sheriff's office in Lemon Grove, or from the district attorney's office headquartered in El Cajon.

The New School Crisis

Pacific Bay Development Corp., a firm which develops land for housing, planned earlier this year to build 750 living units on 80 acres just south of Lemon Grove. The Planned Residential Project carried the title of Imperial 80. Presumably, the 80 in the title referred to the 80 acres it would cover.

There's nothing wrong with a firm developing its land for a profit—but with this project there is a difference. Sixty of the 80 acres are within the boundaries of the Lemon Grove School District and the Lemon Grove District would have to provide educational facilities for the kids who would inhabit Imperial 80.

But the developmental control rests with the City of San Diego. That's because all 80 acres including the 60 in the Lemon Grove School District are within the boundaries of the City of San Diego.

So that's the problem. A case of overlapping boundaries. And it takes all control away from the local school district. San Diego can approve the project and the residents of Lemon Grove will have to provide the schools. The developer can take his profit and move to another project.

If the project is approved by the City of San Diego Council, the Lemon Grove School District would be required to immediately build and staff a complete new school. That would require a bond issue. There is serious doubt that a bond issue for that purpose—or for almost any other school expense issue—would pass at this time.

The school administration protested to the City Council that the Lemon Grove District was not financially able to accommodate the high density project without help from the developer. One proposal was that the developer supply temporary structures until Lemon Grove could provide conventional facilities. No agreement has been reached on this suggestion.

San Diego City Council, in a close vote, has already agreed that the project creates a severe educational-financial problem for this community and the developer modified his plans to 600 units—450 of which would be in the school district.

City Ordinance 600-10 requires developers to make certain that all services are to be provided for residential developments such as this. That makes it necessary for the developer to at least be on speaking terms with the Lemon Grove District. It is interesting that Mrs. Helen Cobb, who only recently relinquished her post on the City Council, voted as a councilman to Ok the project for the developer but the Lemon Grove District again protested.

"Our schools are filled up and residential developers have a responsibility for helping to provide school housing for the students that will reside in homes in Imperial 80," Byron Netzley, Lemon Grove School District Superintendent said at the hearing.

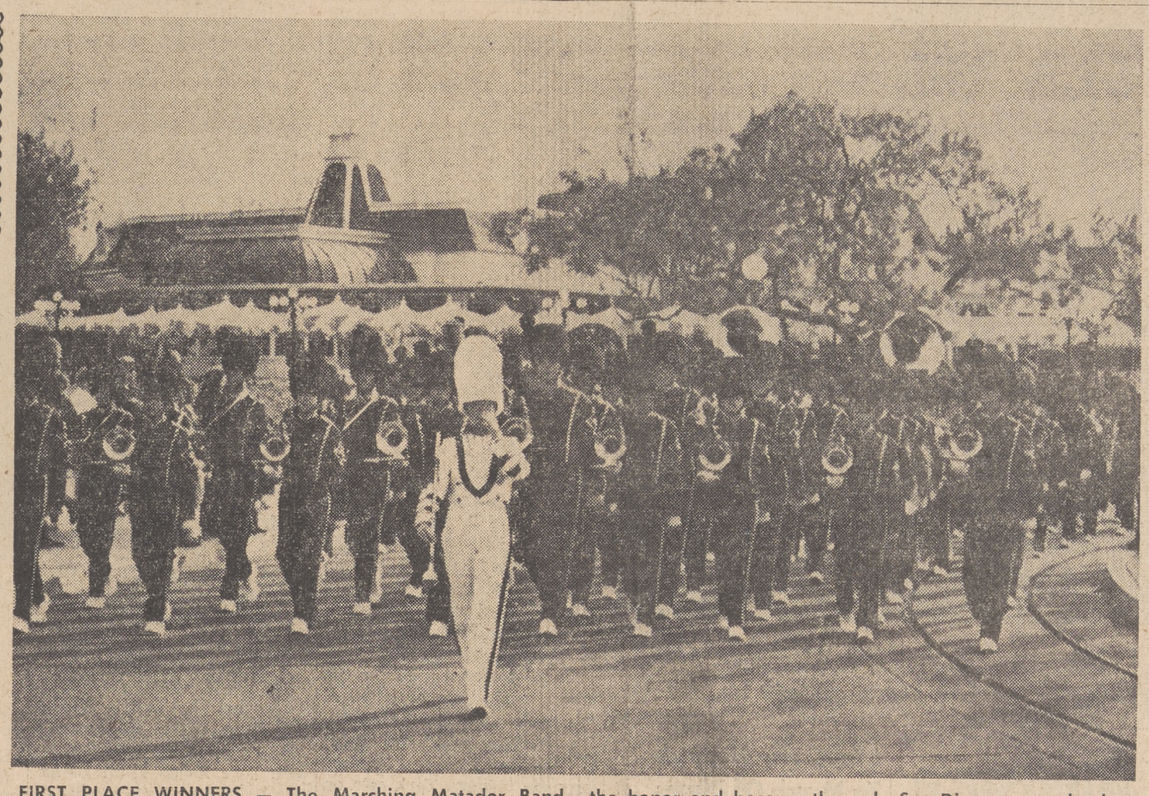
Mrs. Cobb had left the Council and the request for 600 units failed.

The school district asked hearing officers not to approve the Planned Residential Development for more than 480 units. That would put about 300 units in the school district.

Mrs. Cobb was in the picture again. This time she was at the hearing representing Imperial 80 and its request for more units. Council rejected the 600 proposal but granted a rehearing for January 27.

There is certainly nothing illegal about Mrs. Cobb's appearance as an Imperial 80 representative—the firm on which she had given Council judgment just a few weeks before.

But measured in terms of prudence, she wouldn't have received a passing grade.



FIRST PLACE WINNERS — The Marching Matador Band from Mount Miguel High School returned from Long Beach this week with first place in the AA class competition at the All Western Band Review held there Saturday. The Matadors racked up 94.1 points in the competition to claim the honor and become the only San Diego area school to win its division at the review. The first place was the first of the year for Mt. Miguel's band, which last year represented San Diego in the Rose Parade.

Spring Valley Planners Set Committee Meetings

December is often thought of as a time for giving, and for one group of Spring Valley men and women, the task at hand will be giving a name to the Spring Valley planning group which now goes by the name of "Community X".

Members of the group, following a pair of meetings last month, have been split into three committees, with each assigned a task of giving for the January meeting of the general membership.

The name committee, which will meet tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the Shepherd of the Valley Lutheran Church, Agua Dulce and Midway, will decide upon a name for the membership. The by-laws committee will have the job of formulating some rules tonight at Monte Vista High School's room 1003 at 7:30 p.m.

The work program committee met Wednesday night.

The next general meeting will be held January 26 in the Monte Vista High School gym. All residents of Spring Valley and surrounding areas have been invited to the general meeting, as well as any committee meetings, according to general chairman Roy Dieter.

After by-laws, a name, and a work program have been worked out, the Spring Valley general plan can be worked up for county approval. The local planning group is expected to achieve permanent status and recognition from the county planning department early next year.

Season Eentertainment Planned For Meeting

Christmas selections by the orchestra brass and woodwinds will be featured Monday evening at the monthly meeting of the Lemon Grove Junior High School Band Parent's Association.

The meeting begins at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Preceeding the orchestral entertainment is to be the awarding of prizes for top student sellers in the yearly candy sale for band and orchestra funds.

Solos are now being selected for the District solo and ensemble festival at San Diego State College in February, according to orchestra director Harry Weisgerber.

He also announced that a clarinet choir has been started and that a brass ensemble will soon begin.

College Grant Program Competition Now Open

The State Scholarship and Loan Commission announced the opening of the competition of the fourth year of the College Opportunity Grant Program. College Opportunity Grants are primarily for disadvantaged students who plan to initiate their collage education at a public community college.

The College Opportunity Grant Program is for disadvantaged students with high potential but who are identified by factors other than test scores. Applications have been sent to all high schools within the State of California.

Completed applications must be submitted to the State Scholarship and Loan Commission, 714 P street, Sacramento, California 95814, by midnight January 12.

Buffet Dance Due Dec. 18

The Daughters of the British Empire will hold their fourth annual dance at the Lemon Grove VFW Hall, Imperial ave., Lemon Grove, December 18, with celebrations getting underway at 8 p.m.

The Chartwell Chapter of the DBE, which encompasses Lemon Grove and Spring Valley, is sponsoring the affair, which will also include a buffet dinner.

Bill Tabor and his band will provide music for the affair, with the Pipes handling the intermission, according to Rita Wells, who is a member of the DBE.

Formerly, the cafe had a chef on duty only until 10 p.m. The Embers also serves cocktails.

Help!

The Lemon Grove Chamber of Commerce needs an office manager.

The hours are short and the pay isn't too good, but it's a rewarding occupation.

It is just about right for some man or woman who wants to keep active and participate in the excitement of a growing community.

Those who are interested should contact Chamber President Bob Russell at 7920 Broadway, or call him at 466-0345.

Total Lighting District Proposed by Plan Assn.

A proposal to form all of Lemon Grove into a lighting district will be sonsidered at the Lemon Grove Planning Association's night meeting December 9 said Association President James V. Dorman.

The meeting will be at 7:30 in the Golden Avenue Elementary school auditorium.

The project is being developed by Bob Mastny, the Planning Association's Education and public facilities chairman.

Under Mastny's proposal, all streets and thoroughfares would be lighted and the cost of energy would be added to the County's annual tax bills.

The meeting is open to all interested residents. A question and answer period will follow the presentation, Mastny said.

Matador Band Claims First Place at Review

The Mount Miguel High School marching band took home its first big award of the season Saturday by taking first place in the AA division of the All Western Band Review in Long Beach Saturday.

It was the marching Matadors final chance to claim honors, as the marching band season is now over.

Director of the band is Dean Immel, who took over this year for Gene Corporon.

Mount Miguel received 94.1 points for its performance at the competition, in the AA class, which is for schools with enrollments of over 2,500. Second and third places went to L.A. area schools, with Monte Vista collecting a tie for fourth place.

In the A class competition, for schools with enrollments between 2,050 and 2,500, Helix High School managed a fourth place award, adding to the glory of Grossmont District schools.

Other Grossmont District Schools who placed in the competition included El Capitan, who took third in the B class, and El Cajon Valley, a fifth place finisher in the same division.

Two Grossmont District competitors took home trophies in the individual competition. El Capitan's Jenny Anderson managed second place in the military drum major judging, while Helix High's Craig Perry finished second in Mace competition.

The band competition closed out the season for all local schools except for Helix, which will represent the San Diego area in the Rose Parade at Pasadena January 1.

The Helix appearance at the Rose Parade will mark another year that local schools have participated in the Parade. Last year, Mount Miguel represented San Diego, and the year before, Monte Vista made the trip to Pasadena.

'Car Smash' Set As Fund-Raiser For Youth Group

A fund-raising Car Smash will be held Friday and Saturday afternoon at the corner of Broadway and Olive streets in Lemon Grove. It is sponsored by members of the Lemon Grove Youth Center.

Those who would vent their hostilities — or for whatever reason — are invited to take three whacks at a junk car for a quarter on Friday, 3-9 p.m. and Saturday, noon-5 p.m. Hammers will be provided.

The auto is being towed to the parking lot of the Harris House of Furniture by Bob Higdon of Lemon Grove Motors. He will also tow away the scrap. The car was donated by City Auto Wrecking, of 7950 Imperial ave.

Proceeds will be used to keep the Youth Center operating through the holidays.

Water Association To Elect Officers

Staff members and members of the board of directors of the Helix Irrigation District will conclude a four-day meeting of the Irrigation Districts Association convention Friday at Town & Country hotel.

State Director of Water Resources W. R. Gianelli is today's speaker. Association officers will be elected Friday.

La Mesan Eyes Job As District Supervisor

Bill Sumner a business management consultant of La Mesa announced Monday that he is a candidate for Supervisor in the 2nd District. Speaking at the La Mesa Woman's Club Monday Sumner said.

"It is my firm belief that a new trend toward people politics as against politician politics is irreversible. The voter today will not only accept a new name and a new face, but will support him at the polls. The local politician with 10 years in municipal government has too many masters to serve and none of them the people he is supposed to represent."

Bill Sumner

Sumner said that County services to unincorporated areas are supplied at an outrageous cost to the taxpayer, that the County Charter is obsolete and a restructuring of County Departments and their responsibilities is needed. He pointed out that the attendance record of some Supervisors at their own Board meetings is shameful and that these meetings are their primary duty.

"I will eliminate the red-tape-route of communication between the people of this district and their Supervisor by opening a District Office. I will spend time there each week. You will have a direct voice in what we are trying to accomplish," Sumner said.

Referring to a recent report that 25% of our Senior Citizens are at or below poverty level, Sumner pointed out that the repellant fact is the prognosis indicates a worsening of this unabidable situation.

He resides in La Mesa with his wife, Donna, daughter Lisa and baby son, Stephen Boyd.

Second District is now supervised by Henry Boney, who said he would not seek re-election.

Dear Santa . . .

Each year Santa Claus calls on us to help him with his mail.

The local Post Office gives this newspaper the letters which youngsters want Santa to read. We publish the letters and when Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus read their weekly newspaper, the youngsters' message is read along with the rest of the news.

Then, on Christmas morning, under the Christmas tree, is exactly what the youngster wanted — if he has been good.

Here are a couple of starters:

Dear Santa:

Carol will be found somewhere is Mexico for Christmas. Probably in a motel. She would like a Moovin'-Groovin' Velvet and a Suntan Barbie. Also a tape recorder.

Letters Cite Wakefield Measure

Dear Editor:

Do you tell your employer how much money he has to pay you? Did you tell him early this year that you were taking a 20% salary increase or that you were going to raise your expense account to a tax free, seven day a week $30?

This is what your employees, our legislators have done. They ask you to tighten your belts while they loosen theirs notch by notch!

Assemblyman Floyd Wakefield has given us the opportunity to do something about this flagrant spending of our money. His initiative, to put an amendment on the ballot next year, will allow you to vote on whether our legislator's salaries should be controlled by a vote of the people.

If we don't get this on the ballot next year because of the lack of the required number of signatures, our legislators will be able to logically and truthfully say that the people don't care whether they raise their own salaries!

Our one and possibly last chance is here now! Are you willing to give urgently needed help to put this on the ballot next year by getting signatures on a petition? Then write to or call your county clerk and ask for the name of the petition chairman for the "Wakefield salary for elective offices initiative". You do have a chairman in your county.

Mrs. Bob Young
San Joaquin County
Petition Chairman

Dear Editor,

Assemblyman Floyd Wakefield is coming to San Diego to speak on his Wakefield Statewide Salary Initiative Measure.

The meeting is being held tomorrow night in the Roosevelt Junior High School auditorium, 3366 Park blvd., San Diego, at 7:30 p.m.

The Wakefield Salary Initiative, if it qualifies for the ballot by enough signers and then is passed by the voters, would mean elected officials could not raise their own salaries without approval by the voters.

Right now our state legislators have a $19,200 salary per year; a $30 a day per diem for each day on the job; a free-leased 1971 model car (usually the most expensive models); tax-paid credit cards for gas, oil, and maintenance; a $350 monthly rental allowance; a generous retirement fund; etc.

The meeting is sponsored by Taxpayers Concerned, Lakeside Citizens Assoc., South Bay Liberty Admendment Committee, Mountain Valley Taxpayers Assoc., and the Foothill Taxpayers Assoc.

Information will also be given on the Jarvis Property Tax Limitation Initiative.

Both initiatives need and are trying to get almost a million signers throughout California before January in order to qualify for the ballot.

Petitions will be available at the meeting Friday.

Mrs. Waldo Clark
President, Foothill
Taxpayers Assoc.

Eleven western states had more deer, elk and antelope in 1970 than in any year since the turn of the century reports the United States Department of the Interior.

Mrs. Duffy Named To March Of Dimes March Chairmanship

Today's mothers can take steps to protect the good health of tomorrow's children, Mrs. John F. Duffy commented recently upon being named Mothers' March Chairman for the annual March of Dimes appeal in January.

Mrs. Duffy's appointment was announced by her husband, Sheriff John F. Duffy, who is the San Diego-Imperial drive chairman.

In the weeks ahead, Mrs. Duffy and fellow volunteers will plan and put together the numerous tasks necessary for a successful community effort against birth defects.

"Shortly after my husband was named as chairman I informed the San Diego chapter that I also would like to take an active part in what I believe is a very important cause," Mrs. Duffy said.

"Our children are our link to the future . . . our immortality. That's another reason the birth of a baby brings such joy to parents and grandparents.

Learn Spanish the Easy Way

Hardison's Telespanish

By JAMES HARDISON

Knowing and being able to express the cardinal points of the compass in Spanish may help you if you plan on traveling in those countries or areas where Spanish is spoken.

"Norte" is real easy to say, and even easier to remember because it looks so much like the English equivalent "North." We should attempt the pronunciation with great care as we say "NOHR-teh." Several expressions which demonstrate "norte" are seen in "Santa Claus vive en el Polo Norte." (Santa Claus lives in the North Pole). "Mi casa esta en el norte de San Diego." (My home is in the north part of San Diego.) and "Hace frio en el norte." (It is cold in the North.).

"Sur" is the the word for "South." Correct pronunciation requires that we produce an "oo" sound as in the English word "soon." This should allow us to say "SOOHR." We see "sur" being usted in expressions like "Me gusta el sur." (I like the south.) and "Para donde esta el sur?" for "Which way is South?"

"Este," pronounced "EH-steh" means "East." Using this word we may say "Hay una estrella en el este." (There is a star in the East.). "Los Reyes Magos vienen del este." (The Wise Men come from the East.) and "Sigue usted al este." (Continue to the East.). An alternate word for "este" is "oriente." Using this we may say "Nueva York esta en el oriente." (New York is in the East.) and "El camino sigue al oriente." (The road continues to the East.)..

"Oeste" is translated "West." A well known expression would include this word when we say "El sol se pone en el oeste." (The sun sets in the West.). Another phrase suggests "Yo vivo en el oeste." (I live in the West.). You may wish to continue learning cardinal points with the aid of the native voice recording the following on 276-2762.

IMPORTANT PHRASES:

Say "Esta Santa Claus en el Polo Norte?" (eh-STAH SAHN-tah KLAH-oos ehn ehl POH-loh NOHR-teh)
for "Is Santa Claus in the North Pole?"
Say "Si, esta en el Polo Norte." (SEE eh-STAH ehn ehl POH-loh NOHR-teh) for "Yes, he is in the North Pole."

USEFUL PHRASES:

Say "Va usted al oeste?" (vah oo-STEHD ahl oh-EH-steh)
for "Are you going west?"
Say "No. Voy al sur." (noh VOH-ee ahl SOOHR) for "No. I am going south."

OTHER PHRASES:

Say "Adonde viven Los Reyes Magos?" (ah-THOHN-deh VEE-vehn lohs REH-yehs MAH-gohs)
for "Where do the wise men live?"
Say "Viven en el este." (VEE-vehn ehn ehl EH-steh)
for "They live in the East."

VFW Auxiliary Coupon Drive Goal In Sight

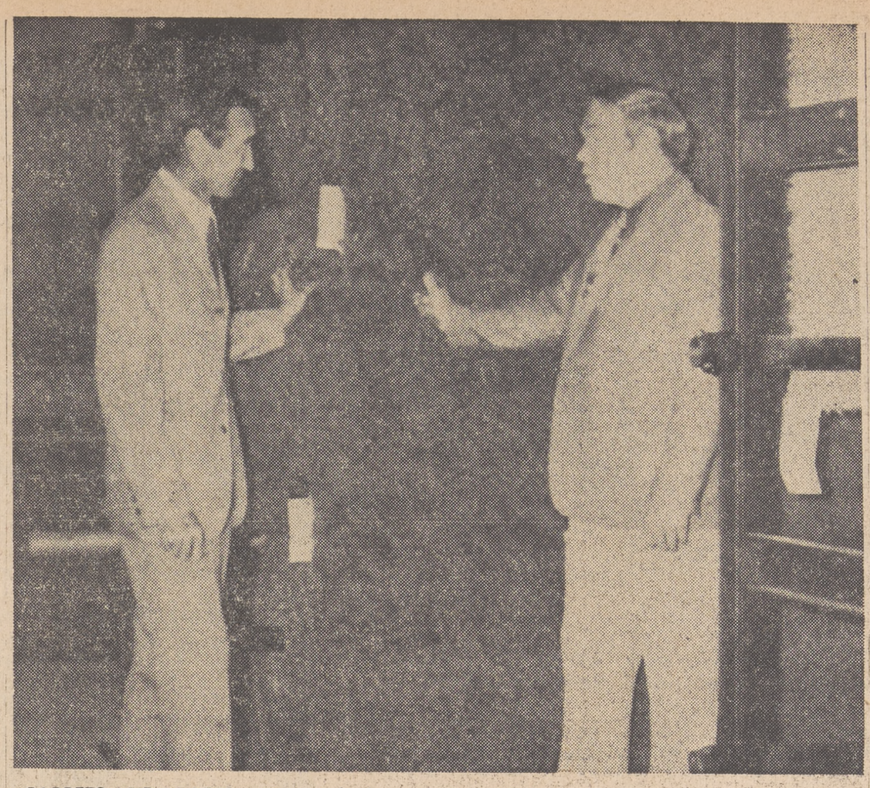
Presentation of some 400,000 Betty Crocker coupons was made November 13, by Lynn Melby, Coupon chairman for Mission Valley Veterans of Foreign Wars Girls' Unit, to Ennis Scott, President of the San Diego Co. Chapter of the Southern Calif. Kidney Foundation.

Presentation was made at the VFW Post Home, 4370 Twain ave., San Diego. The coupons completed the drive for the artificial kidney machine needed for the Furlow brothers, who, with their parents, were present.

The Community Reformed Walk-in Drive-in Church of Escondido spearheaded the initial drive for this machine, and accumulated some one million coupons in memory of Harry McColaugh. for whom the first kidney machine was obtained in the county through the Betty Crocker coupon program.

The coupons presented by the VFW girls included some 200,000 donated by the Escondido church group towards a third machine for the San Diego area, as well as donations from churches, schools, fraternal groups, employees groups, and many interested private individuals. Large donations were made by the Ninth Dist. P.T.A., the Worthy Matrons of the Eastern Star 1971, the Lutheran Social Services, and others.

Mrs. David Thomas, Youth Activities Chairman for the VFW Ladies Aux. No. 3787, said that with cooperation of all groups and individuals in the area, the necessary additional 415,000 coupons will reach Minneapolis well before the December 31 deadline.



CARPETS AND DRAPES — One of the largest carpet houses in San Diego County has opened a discount outlet in Lemon Grove at 7951 Broadway in the remodeled building that once housed the local Post Office. The firm, Taylor Carpets and Drapes, is a "supermarket" a spokesman for the firm said. "On one side of the store are full rolls. The other side is for remnant and roll balances left over from our large contract and commercial jobs. Every item is priced out with tags on full display," said Don Plane, co-owner of the firm.
In addition to the carpets, a custom drape department will be housed. There too, the material will be in rolls fully priced out and the drapes will be made on the premises.
The store will have three salespeople; 10 carpet layers; and 4 drape people. "Everything will be priced on a strictly cutrate basis," Plane said.

Beck Named Chairman Of Advisory Board

Walter Beck, 62, has been named Chairman of the Environmental Development Agency Advisory Board.

Beck, a Fallbrook avocado grower for the past 20 years, was appointed to the position by William Craven, chairman of the County Board of Supervisors.

Commenting on the appointment, EDA Administrator Robert L. Small stated, "We are facing a number of critical land use issues in San Diego County. We need help in creating a dialogue between County government and the people. We need the involvement of concerned citizens in the environmental decision-making process. We look forward to the assistance Mr. Beck and his distinguished Advisory Board colleagues can render.."

Small said the EDA Advisory Board is one of eight agency advisory boards being set up by the County of San Diego to improve citizen input into local government programs.

"The EDA Advisory Board will be involved in assisting the Board of Supervisors, as well as County administration, in giving shape and direction to the process of regional environmental action," Small added.

Beck has been active in numerous community affairs including service on the Board of the San Diego County Water Authority, and as Vice-chaiman of the Fallbrook Citizens Planning Group.

POW Group Aids With Card Project

A slight variation attracting attention to the prisoner of war problem is being tried in San Diego.

"Concern for Prisoners of War, Inc." a firm organized for what the name indicates, is proving it with attractive cards showing a woman looking out to sea, the blue sky filled with birds, and the sun setting on the horizon.

"We decided Christmas cards would be the most feasible way of reminding people of the plight of American prisoners ," said Joe McCain, a free-lance writer whose brother is a prisoner. Joe is a volunteer worker at the CPW office.

"We get a wide distribution of our POW message on a person-to-person basis," he said.

The cards are $5 for a package of 20. Families with a relative who is a prisoner, the cards are $2. McCain said that 1,300 packages had been sold so far. Proceeds are used to educate POW children, he said.

Cards may be obtained from the firm at suite 515, 861 6th ave., San Diego, CA 92101. For information or volunteer service, call 235-6326.

Boney Says Lawmakers Lose Effect in 8 Years

Supervisor Henry Boney retold the story of his proposed retirement from politics last week to a joint meeting of the Lemon Grove Kiwanis and Rotary clubs.

Boney said, as he did at a news conference several days earlier, that a supervisor should be able to impress his presence on the law-making machinery in two terms (8 years), and that he becomes ineffective after that on other than routine matters.

He said he would serve only two terms when he was first elected as supervisor seven years ago. His term expires a week beyond the end of 1972.

Boney said that a great problem was encouraging capable persons to run for office. He has a series of seminars he will conduct among employees of the county next year. In it he hopes to encourage some to seek office.

Boney said he would aid his sons in the operation of the food market business. Boney developed 7-11 Markets and sold them several years ago. His sons are developing Boney Markets in the east county.

The joint service club meeting was presided over by the clubs' two presidents — Dr. Griffith Clark for the Rotary and Del Lake for the Kiwanis.

This week, on Monday, the Rotary club was host to the Mt. Miguel Girls' Ensemble. Individual members contributed $138 to the girls' planned trip to Mexico, according to Dr. Harry Sorteberg, program chairman.

Henry To Edge 'Hillers In Prep Football Final

By John Nicholson

Tomorrow night's football game will end that prep season, and things will settle down to basketball and wrestling for awhile. Here's the menu and my choices:

Football

Patrick Henry and Grossmont will battle for the second time this season, with Grossmont hoping for better luck than the first time around.

In that game, a pre-season affair, Henry embarrassed the Foothillers with an air tight defense and a fine rushing game.

Henry still has the fine rushing game, and a good defense, but this time the 'Hillers have a sharp offensive unit and a pretty fair defensive unit, also.

The Patriots have the clear advantage, with an unstopable rushing attack, while Grossmont has a better balanced offense but has had trouble against ball control type teams. Henry by 3 points. (Friday, 8 p.m.)

Basketball

Mount Miguel vs. St. Augustine at Chula Vista (Friday, 6:30 p.m.) Mount Miguel, with two of the hottest shooters in the county in Tim Miller and Mark Dobransky, are up against a better balanced team with a height advantage.

The game will hinge upon whether Mt. Miguel will be able to control enough rebounds and make the inside play click. Saints by 13 points.

Mount Miguel vs. Crawford at Chula Vista (Saturday, 8 p.m.) The Matadors draw their first easy foe in this game, taking on a team that has the same problems, only worse. Crawford has no big men and shoots mostly from the outside. Mt. Miguel's experience will pay off in this contest by 17 points.

Monte Vista at Madison (Friday, 8 p.m.) This should be a pretty good contest, although Madison is the favorite. Monte Vista has good defenders and some clutch players. Madison has all the height, however, and gets the nod by 8 points.

Wrestling

Both Monte Vista and Mount Miguel will travel to Southwestern College today and tomorrow for the annual Kiwanis Tournament there.

Mount Miguel, defending CIF champs, are probably the top wrestlers in the county this season, but Monte Vista, another perrenial champion, will offer the Matadors more than enough competition.

Adding to the threats will be Helix High School, and the three schools could very well end up in a three-way battle for the tourney crown. Mount Miguel to win by a slim margin over Monte Vista and Helix, who will take two and three.

Bob Skinner Clinic At Local Schools

Padre coach Bob Skinner, who pinch-hits during the off-season as 39-TV's Public Relations Director, will conduct a series of baseball instructional clinics beginning this week in the Grossmont School district as a public service program of KCST-39-TV.

Skinner has the credentials for the job, having played 13 years in the National Baseball League, with a lifetime batting average of .280. Skinner not only played in the majors with such teams as Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, St. Louis, but also has served in the National League as manager of the Philadelphia Phillies.

Bob is currently serving as a coach and batting instructor for the San Diego Padres.

The purpose of the program is to aid area youths in physical fitness, and to acquaint them with the intricacies of baseball, especially in the art of hitting.

"Most young athletes do not get enough time at the plate to refine their hitting abilities," Skinner said. "We hope that through this program they will get that opportunity."

Skinner will be aided by "Iron Mike" a 200 lb. pitching machine. "A guaranteed 40 game winner" according to Skinner.

Instructions will be at Monte Vista Jan. 10-11 at 2 p.m.; Mt. Miguel Jan. 12-13 at 3:30 p.m. and 11 a.m. and at Helix Jan. 19-20 at 1:30 p.m.

Mt. Miguel Set For Pair Of Hoop Games

The Mount Miguel basketball team, with a pair of games under its belt, will play a pair of games this weekend in praparation for the holiday tournaments.

The games, both as parts of a pair of doubleheaders, will be against Saint Augustine and Crawford, with the Matadors a slight favorite against Crawford and Saint Augustine a like favorite over the local school.

The first game will be tomorrow night at Chula Vista High School, with the Saints and Matadors tipping off at 6:30 p.m. Saint Augustine, a perrenially competitive group, will have good shooting and good inside men to work with, while Mount Miguel will rely on guard Tim Miller and forward Mark Dobransky for most of its points.

Guard Mike Bruner is expected to shake off his slow start in the shooting wars, and center Steve Ayres should be able to move better for inside plays for Mount Miguel than in the last couple of contests.

On Saturday night, the Matadors should be able to get by the small but scrappy Crawford Colts, also in the Chula Vista gym, but starting at 8 p.m.

Crawford was dealt a blow during the summer when center Will Olinde transferred to Helix. The Colts have had trouble with short forwards, relying mainly on outside shooting, as have the Matadors.

The Colts will depend on a versatile defense, which can go either man-to-man or zone, and a single post offense, with most of the shooting handled by guards Bruce Haney and Pete Milne.

Following is the box score of the Mt. Miguel-Madison game played last week in the Matador gym:

Slide Show Scheduled

"Baja — Tierra Del Sueno" will be the show December 10 presented by R. Van Nostrand under the auspices of the Helix Showmasters.

The program, which is the second portion of Nostrand's color presentation on Baja California, will be presented at 8 p.m. in the Ben Polak Auditorium, 8053 University ave., La Mesa.

The first portion of the presentation was given November 12 and included a trip down the Sea of Cortez to the peninsula. This month's program will explore the more desolate Pacific side.

Grossmont Schools Show Cross Country Strength

Grossmont League Schools, for many years the best among cross country teams, proved it again last week when five of the top ten runners in the San Diego Section CIF finals hailed from local league schools.

Although Clairemont won the team title by placing three men in the top ten, Grossmont League schools made up the remainder of the top five schools.

Monte Vista, with a pair of runners in the top five and excellent grouping, took second place, barely nosing out third place El Cajon. Mount Miguel finished fourth in the race, while Helix nailed down the fifth place spot.

Individually speaking, the race was as exciting as any in the past few years, as an expected battle between Alberto Velasco of Fallbrook and Terry Cotton of El Cajon came right down to the finish line.

Cotton moved out in front in the early going, running a quick pace. Velasco, moving out with Cotton, ran right on the El Cajon's runner's shoulder for nearly the entire race. At several points, Velasco tried to pass his adversary, but Cotton put out bursts of speed each time.

As the race was nearing its end, the Fallbrook athlete put his kick together and made his way to the front with 100 yards to go. Cotton at that point couldn't muster up the strength, and Velasco had his first CIF championship.

Velasco, a 17-year-old sophomore, has one more year of eligibility under CIF rules, and will be back next year.

Following Cotton to the finish line was El Cajon teammate Bruce Kuehne, with Monte Vista's pair of fine runners, Gary Close and Tom Wendt in fourth and sixth. Rebounding out local top tenners was Joe Stubbs, of Mount Miguel, who took seventh.

Stubbs, who injured himself two weeks ago, missed twelve days of training and was unable to run up to his expectations. Stubbs earlier in the year had beaten El Cajon's Kuehne, who finished third last week.

Holiday Dance Due

The Spring Valley Little League will sponsor a dance tomorrow night at the Memory Lane Center, 9062 Memory lane, with festivities to get underway at 9 p.m.

Dick Coleset and his band will provide music, including "oldies but goodies" from the '50's and '60's, and refreshments will be served.

Proceeds from the holiday affair will go toward the purchasing of uniforms and equipment for teams in the league. Door prizes, including books of trading stamps, will be awarded. Tickets, available at the door, are $1.50 per person.

Nicklaus Due Here For A. Williams January Tourney

Winners of the past four Andy Williams San Diego Open golf tournaments, headed by Jack Nicklaus with a whopping $54,412.50, lead in money won at this event are due to convene again on January 27-30 at Torrey Pines Golf Course.

Nicklaus' fifth, first, third and third-place tie finishes from 1968 through 1971 respectively give him $17,362.50 more than second-place Tom Weiskopf, who won in 1968 and took fourth in 1970 Weiskopf has pocketed $37,050.

George Archer, 1971 titlist, is third with $32,990.09 and Pete Brown, 1970 champion, fourth with $30,250.00.

To overtake Nicklaus in this year's event, one of the next three would have to win the first prize of $30,000. Gene Littler, in fifth with $20,619.38, could not even do it with the top money.

In contrast with Nicklaus' amazing consistency on the special Torrey Pines layout, Archer finished in ties for 45th, 20th and 26th over the first three years. Most consistent performers over the entire four years next to Nicklaus were Tommy Aaron (ties for 12th, third, seventh and 19th) and Paul Harney (ties for seventh, 23rd, 12th and third).

At that, Aaron's $17,466.42 and Harney's $16,103.50 place them behind Tony Jacklin ($19,250), Al Geiberger ($18,300) and Dave Eichelberger ($18,140), all of whom figured once in second-place money.

Padres Spread Wide For Winter Baseball

Thirteen Padres, including a healthy slice of the club's major league roster, already are tuning up for next season by playing winter baseball.

It's the largest Padre posse ever assembled for winter ball and Bob Fontaine, director of scouting, believes the benefits will be promptly apparent.

"I think it'll mean a fast start next spring," Fontaine said.

"Several of our players are taking special instruction and others are receiving needed playing time," Fontaine said. "All who are in the winter program should be more advanced when spring training begins."

The Padres lineup in winter baseball:

Venezuela: John Jeter (Lara), Ivan Murrell and Clarence Gaston (Magallanes), Enzo Hernandez and Angel Bravo (La Guaira).

Dominican Republic: Ed Acosta (Aguilas), Rafael Robles (Escogido).

Puerto Rico: Garry Jestadt (San Juan), Jerry Morales (Cagyas), John Sipin (Arecibo).

Mexico: Mike Caldwell, Ralph Garcia and John Grubb (Obregon).

Fontaine said that the Padres would watch closely the development of Caldwell, a relief specialist who excelled during a brief stay with the club late last season.

"We expect Caldwell to be a member of our bullpen staff next season and Johnny Podres (San Diego minor league pitching coach) is in Mexico to assist in Mike's progress," Fontaine said.

Special work also has been programmed for Garry Jestadt and John Jeter.

Jestadt, who in his last 29 games as the Padre regular third baseman hit a robust .350, will spend the winter polishing his fielding. And Jeter, who came to the Padres in a late-season swap with Pittsburgh and hit safely in 17 of 19 games, will concentrate on improving his bunting.

The Padres also want Acosta and Garcia, the latter a promising right-hander who won 11 games at Lodi, to pitch as many innings as possible this winter.

"We'll keep close watch on all our players in winter baseball," Fontaine said. "Preston Gomez will see all the players in the Caribbean, Dave Garcia will watch those playing in Mexico and I'll be all-over."

PADRE BREIFS — The Padres announced that their 1972 home season will open April 14, (a Friday night) against Atlanta . . . It'll be the first home weekend opening ever for the Padres .

Gulls On Road; Return Dec. 9 Against Totems

SALT LAKE CITY — The San Diego Gulls, making a move in the Western Hockey League race, battle the Salt Lake Golden Eagles here tonight and then move on to Phoenix where they close out a four-game road trip with an important game against the Roadrunners on Saturday night.

Both games will be broadcast on KOGO radio 60, starting at 6:45 p.m., San Diego time.

The Gulls carried a five-game winning streak into Portland last night. That equals the Gulls' longest winning streak in their five-season history, so San Diego was shooting for a new team mark last night when they battle the Bucks.

After the current trip ends in Phoenix Saturday night, the Gulls will have completed 13 of their 36 road games for the season, over a third of their road schedule.

The Gulls had a 4-2 series edge over Portland and had won two straight from the Bucks going into last night's game. San Diego has won all three of this season's games against Salt Lake.

The series against Phoenix is another story. The Gulls have lost both of their games against the Roadrunners this season — 5-1 in Phoenix and 8-1 at home.

The Gulls will occupy the San Diego Arena ice against Seattle Dec. 9.

In last week's action, the Gulls won all four games that they played to run their winning streak to five in a row. San Diego opened its busy schedule with a 6-1 win in Seattle on Wednesday night; then returned home and defeated Portland, 3-2, on Thanksgiving night; came back Saturday night to beat Salt Lake, 4-2, and then returned to Seattle on Sunday night and won a wild, 8-4 game.

Maravich Here In Arena Tues.

Colorful Pistol Pete Maravich makes his only local National Basketball Assn. appearance this season when the Atlanta Hawks clash with the Golden State Warriors, Tuesday.

The San Diego Sports Arena contest begins at 8 p.m.

Maravich, who became the highest scorer in major college basketball history during a three year career at Louisiana State University from 1968-70, missed the Hawks' first 14 games this year when he developed infectious mononucleosis.

Since returning to action November 17, the 6-5 guard, noted as a slick ball handler and fine passer, has been averaging 15 points.

Last season, Maravich's first in the NBA, he tallied 1880 points in 81 games for a 23.2 mark. His shooting and playmaking were largely responsible for Atlanta's late surge of 17 wins in its last 26 games and a playoff berth for the seventh consecutive campaign under coach Richie Guerin.

Golden State, which smothered Chicago and then fell short against Houston in its two Sports Arena visits this season, will counter with the point production of Cazzie Russell and Jeff Mullins and the defensive work of Nate Thurmond.

Russell, the explosive 6-5 forward who wore a New York uniform last year, continues to lead the Warriors with a 24-point average, just ahead of 6-3 backcourt ace Mullins, team high scorer for the past three seasons.

Thurmond, 6-11 pivotman, tallied 25 in the only meeting between the two teams this year, a 106-104 triumph for Atlanta.

VIP's Seek Holiday Aid

Volunteers in Probation are asking help for probationers this Christmas season. The San Diego County Probation Department supervises 15,000 persons — dependent, neglected children, troubled delinquents, and adult offenders, people who often face a bleak holiday season without help.

"Among troubled people, the holiday season means loneliness, depression and anger, moods which can lead to renewed conflicts with authority. Volunteers in Probation hope to alleviate some of this "down-cycle" with Christmas gifts, food and entertainment," said Ken Fare, Chief Probation Officer.

The main needs are gifts for dependent children, troubled adolescents and adult probationers, according to Fare. Among 2,000 dependent, neglected, abandoned and abused children in San Diego County, about 1,000 will need Christmas gifts. The children range in age from infancy to 18 years.

Sheriff's Deputy John Bouldens, assigned to Lemon Grove, was presented with a plaque and a grant of $125 — an award of Field Enterprises — for scholastic achievement. He is a student of police science at Miramar college.

FILA Group Is Organized

A group of Grossmont College students who call themselves the "Friends in Liberty Association," have joined forces to help a less fortunate segment of our society to find a place in today's world.

Meeting each Monday at 11 a.m. in the college librarian's office, the new group will help female parolees from state prisons and county honor camps to become useful members of society.

FILA will provide assistance to the women in applying for admission to Grossmont College, as well as counseling them during their initial encounter with the outside world.

According to Mrs. Gail Lusk, La Mesa, a law enforcement major, FILA will strive to find temporary housing and part-time jobs for the first small group of parolees that they hope to enroll at Grossmont College for the spring semester.

Cranston Seeks Exemption For News Medias

Senator Alan Cranston introduced last week an amendment that would exempt the press and broadcast media from price, wage and rent controls.

The measure was co-sponsored by Senators James L. Buckley (Cons., N.Y.), Sam J. Ervin, Jr. (D., N.C.), Robert Dole (R., Kans.), and B. Everett Jordan (D., N.C.), which Cranston characterized as "a remarkably broad-based coalition".

Noting that the press and broadcasters were similarly exempted during the Korean War and World War II, Senator Cranston said:

"This amendment goes directly to the First Amendment guaranty of a press totally free from government domination or intimidation.

"Without my amendment, the government would have economic life-or-death power over every publishing and broadcasting operation in the country.

"Through individual, case-by-case rulings, the Administration would be in a position to favor its supporters with competitive price or wage advantages and, conversely, to punish its critics with adverse decisions.

Grand Rock Opera Opens At College

Grossmont College's Griffin Players opened "Tommy," a grand opera in rock Monday night in the Student Center. The Griffin Players' arrangement of the popular rock opera, directed by Martin Gerrish, will be presented each evening through Saturday.

Written by Peter Townshend of "The Who," British rock's toughest and most innovative group, "Tommy," although labeled opera, is closer to an eighteenth century oratario. "Tommy" tells the story of a popular messiah, a deaf, dumb and blind boy who has been brutally brainwashed by his parents, sadistically treated by his kid cousin, molested by his drunken uncle and introduced to a bad LSD trip by a gypsy. Preserving only his sense of touch, Tommy triumphs by becoming a pinball wizard, the idol of a youth cult.

When miraculously cured of his afflictions, he subjects his disciples to the same entombment he endured; luring them to a camp where they were ordered to practice pinball play wearing dark glasses and ear plugs. His disciples rebel and the opera concludes with Tommy reduced to his former condition, envisioning the generation advancing in a cloud of glory.

"Young" Tommy is played by Mike Phillips, El Cajon; "older" Tommy by Clay Whitfield, also of El Cajon and "adult" Tommy by Wade Curry, San Diego. Other cast members include, the Mother played by Lynette Tolbert; Father, Don Dedman; Cousin Kevin, Doug Grote; Uncle Ernie, Jeffry Waugh, all of El Cajon; Uncle Ernie's Sidekick, Lee Ivascon; Captain Walker, Larry Kusnitt; Gypsy, Eric Espinoza, all of El Cajon; Hawker played by Lee Stewart, Lemon Grove; Hawker's Woman, Joyce McLean; Sally Simpson, Margie Butler and Nurse, Patricia Hutton, also of El Cajon. Lover played by Warren Konold, La Mesa; Doctor, Pat Rogers and Narrator, Richard Kosic both of El Cajon.

Other members of the cast include, Carla Phillips, Richard Wagle, Arthur Sousa, Julie Gartland, Patricia Peterson, Jerry Dexiheimer, Jerry Snow, Terry Espinoza, Bobbie Kulis, Mike Fornasero, Eddie Butler, Monica Hutchens, Helen Espinoza and Marla Grote all of El Cajon; Cathy Gliebe of La Mesa; Alex Hurtado, Joy Hornbeck and Richard Carlson of San Diego and Denice Willits of Lemon Grove.

Musical accompaniment will be provided by Craig Palmer, Jack Butler and Paul Nichols all of El Cajon.

The public is invited to the college's first rock opera. The price of admission is $1.50 with reservations for all performances required. Reservations may be obtained by calling 465-1700, Ext. 327.

North Texas State Is Foe Of S.D. State

Some of the most talented individuals ever to perform on the Montezuma Mesa close out their brilliant careers Saturday night in San Diego Stadium as the San Diego State Aztecs take on North Texas State.

For stars like Tommy Reynolds, Brian Sipe, Willie Buchanon, Ty Youngs and others it's the final collegiate game for Coach Don Coryell and a must-win contest if the Aztecs are to finish the campaign with a winning record. State carries a 5-5 mark into the game while the eagles are 3-7.

It's the third meeting between the two schools with the Aztecs winning 23-0 last year at Denton and 48-24 in a memorable come-from-behind effort here in 1969.

The interesting matchup of the evening finds North Texas "mean green" defense, sporting one of the best pass defenses in the nation, going against the Aztecs, boasting one of the best pass offenses.

San Diego States comes off a 48-31 loss to rugged Iowa State while North Texas was idle after blasting Wichita State.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. Ron Reina and Mike Meagher will broadcast the game on KDEO (910) starting with the Don Coryell Show at 6:55 p.m. followed by the Aztec Preview at 7:10 p.m.

Other benefits for the job include vacation time, sick leave, retirement, life insurance, and health benefits. For details, notice has been posted in the post office.

INTERIM COACH — Harland Svare, who is serving as interim coach of the San Diego Chargers since the departure of Sid Gillman last week, has his eye on Sunday's game in San Diego Stadium against the Minnesota Vikings. The nationally televised game, which will be blacked out in San Diego and Los Angeles, will get underway at 1 p.m.

Svare Has Double Concern As Chargers Replay Vikings

Project Concern.

Harland Svare has two of them.

A day before he was asked to become interim head coach of the San Diego Chargers, General Manager Harland Svare was appointed chairman of the 1972 San Diego Committee for Project Concern, an international non-profit medical and dental program.

But Svare's more immediate Project Concern is the Chargers, who have a date Sunday with the mighty Minnesota Vikings at San Diego Stadium. The CBS nationally-televised game will begin at 1 p.m.

Sunday's game will be Round 2 in an instant rivalry which began on a balmy August night at San Diego Stadium this year. The Vikings whipped the Chargers, 34-7, in a pre-season game punctuated by mass brawling by both squads.

The Chargers (4-7) must rebound from a 31-0 shock at the claws of the Cincinnati Bengals last Sunday. The Vikings (9-2) are rolling to their fourth successive NFL Central Division title and come off a 24-7 thump of the Atlanta Falcons.

"We're thinking only of playing one of the best teams in football," said Svare, when reminded of the previous game. "Their record speaks for itself."

The record for Coach Bud Grant's team for the last three years is 33 wins and 6 losses, the best record of any team in the NFL.

Minnesota's byword is defense, and the Vikings lead the NFL in fewest points allowed with 89 — an average of 8.1 per game.

Making their second San Diego appearance will be the notorious "Purple People Eaters," Minnesota's outstanding defensive line of ends Carl Eller and Jim Marshall and tackles Gary Larsen and Alan Page. They have 25 quarterback sacks this season.

Combating them will be San Diego's strong offensive line of tackles Terry Owens and Russ Washington, guards Doug Wilkerson and Walt Sweeney and center Carl Mauck. They have allowed 17 successful intrusions at their quarterback.

Sunday matchups are Owens vs. Marshall, Wilkerson vs. Page, Sweeney vs. Larsen and Washington vs. Eller.

Minnesota has had problems on offense and average only 16 points a game. But the Vikings gained 240 yards rushing against Atlanta last week with Clint Jones accounting for 155 and Bill Brown 85. Dave Osborn is another stellar power back.
